

FATIMA ASAD KHAN

Fatima Asad Khan is the Chief Executive Officer of Abacus, one of the world's premier international technology, outsourcing, and consulting firm driving large-scale digital transformation across industries and geographies. With over 28 years of experience, she has pioneered progressive solutions in corporate governance, enterprise technology, AI, data and cloud services, human capital management, and sustainability.

She serves on various Boards of major corporations and institutions including FFC, Packages Convertors Limited, Bata Pakistan, Power IT Company, Kashf Foundation, Kaarvan Crafts Foundation, JA Pakistan, and the Pakistan Center for Philanthropy. She has also previously served as Trustee on the Board of LUMS and Faysal Bank Limited as an Independent Director. She is also deeply engaged in mentoring entrepreneurial ventures through initiatives such as NIC Lahore, Invest2Innovate, and Standard Chartered Women in Tech. She has received the Top IT Female Export Award from the President of Pakistan, the Platinum Award for Top Women Entrepreneur in Tech at the IT & ITes Exporters Awards 2024, and has guided Abacus to win 11 Global Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI) Best Practice Awards 2025-6, placing the company among Pakistan's top 10 inclusive organizations. She also contributes as a member of the IT & Telecom Advisory Committee, advising the government on long-term strategies to strengthen Pakistan's IT exports.

Beyond her corporate achievements, Fatima is an active advocate for social responsibility and gender diversity. She has provided pro-bono advisory support to organizations including SIUT, TCF, SKMT, UNICEF, and the Imran Khan Foundation. Fatima began her career with Coopers & Lybrand International and PricewaterhouseCoopers after completing her MBA from LUMS. She is a Certified Corporate Director from Harvard Business School and an active member of the Harvard Corporate Directors Forum, the global Women Executives on Boards Forum, Women for Boards Steering Committee (Pakistan), the Diversity & Inclusion Hub Leadership Council, and a member of PILAP.